Conseil des ministres sur la francophonie canadienne

Ministers' Council on the Canadian Francophonie

PDAC 2026

Invitation

A Francophone Space at the Core of the Mining Industry

Join us on March 1, 2026, from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., in room 206 F (North Building) of the Metro Toronto Convention Centre (255 Front St W) for a morning of networking and business development in French within the mining sector.

Program

8 a.m. Breakfast seminar with ministers and dignitaries

Discussions with:

- The Honourable Caroline Mulroney, President of the Treasury Board and Minister of Francophone Affairs, Government of Ontario
- The Honourable John Herron, Minister of Natural Resources, Government of New Brunswick
- The Honourable Caitlin Cleveland, Minister of Industry, Tourism and Investment, and Minister of Education, Culture and Training, Government of the Northwest Territories

10 a.m. Collaborating with communities

Discussions with:

- Béatrice Pierre, VP Health, Safety, Environment and Community, Rio Tinto
- Mapi Mobwano, CEO, ArcelorMittal Mining Canada
- Mélanie Corriveau, VP Community & Indigenous Relation, Agnico Eagle
- Christiane Bergevin, Senior Advisor, Roland Berger, and Board Director

11 a.m. Innovation and performance

Discussions with:

- Renaud Adams, CEO, IAMGOLD
- Sheila Risbud, VP Canada, Glencore
- Patrick Godin, CEO, New Gold Inc.
- Angelina Mehta, Engineer and Board Director

We look forward to seeing you as we celebrate together the excellence and diversity of the mining sector's Francophonie!

Established in 1994, the Ministers' Council on the Canadian Francophonie (MCCF) is an intergovernmental forum that brings together the ministers responsible for the Canadian Francophonie. The MCCF strives for an inclusive and dynamic Francophonie that contributes to and participates fully in the development of Canadian society. Visit the MCCF's website at www.cmfc-mccf.ca